Red Bay National Historic Site UNESCO World Heritage Site, Red Bay, NL

During the mid-16th century, an abundant whale population drew whalers from the Basque region of Spain and France, where they established a major whaling port at Red Bay. For decades, Basque whalers made the dangerous, month-long journey across the Atlantic to hunt whales and produce the oil that lit the lamps of Europe. See original Basque artifacts, remains, and restored chalupa at this national historic site and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Group tour experiences offered include Bites of Basque History, Digging Through Time, and Lighting the Lamps of Europe! NEW Attractions and Experiences. To Book: (709) 458 2417 or Email pc.infolhnredbay-redbaynhsinfo.pc@canada.ca

"Basque" in the Experience of Basque/Labrador Fusion, Forteau, NL
